666illuminatiofficial.com is dedicated to the purpose of making good men into better men; It also encourages its members to actively seek to better themselves through hard work, dedication, and education. To convey these lessons, symbols and allegories are used. Each of our visual symbols has a meaning which is designed to remind us of some moral or social virtue which we should learn and practice. The stories we tell in course of our three degrees of membership are allegorical and designed to be impressive to the initiate while teaching important lessons. Above all else, Illuminati is dedicated to the brotherhood of all mankind.”

We have had your case about the micro wave weapon and how they have been using it to torture you and we cannot let it to continue. We have hired a Lawyer who is going to be handling your case when we finally drag these people to court. We also have a witness who is also a victim of the micro wave weapon that the government has been using to torture people like you and this make your case even more confirm. We have information about the effect of what the micro wave weapon on how it causes harm on human as our expert now argue, more plausibly explain reports of painful sounds, ills and traumas than do other possible culprits — sonic attacks, viral infections and contagious anxiety. In particular, a growing number of analysts cite an eerie phenomenon known as the Frey effect, named after Allan H. Frey, an American scientist. Long ago, he found that microwaves can trick the brain into perceiving what seem to be ordinary sounds. The false sensations, the experts say, may account for a defining symptom of the diplomatic incidents — the perception of loud noises, including ringing, buzzing and grinding. Initially, experts cited those symptoms as evidence of stealthy attacks with sonic weapons. Members of Jason, a secretive group of elite scientists that helps the federal government assess new threats to national security, say it has been scrutinizing the diplomatic mystery this summer and weighing possible explanations, including microwaves. We strongly believe all what has been mention here are affecting you. Rest assure you are going to be fine as you will have a Doctor who will take care of you after this case has been won.
